

HIGH SCHOOL DIPLOMA PROGRAM

A program of Canyon State Institute — one institution, two program tracks.

THE PROGRAM

The Canyon State Institute High School Program extends our mission — empowering individuals to achieve their aspirations through exceptional education, practical skill development, and unwavering support — to secondary students. Offered in [grades 9–12], the program leads to a high school diploma issued by Canyon State Institute and is delivered by distance education under the same ownership, governance, academic policies, and student-services infrastructure as all Canyon State Institute programs.

INSTITUTIONAL STRUCTURE — TWO PROGRAM TRACKS

TRACK 1 — CERTIFICATE PROGRAMS

Professional, graduate-level, enterprise, and free/introductory courses and certificate programs for career preparation and advancement.

TRACK 2 — HIGH SCHOOL DIPLOMA PROGRAM

A [grades 9–12] distance education program leading to a high school diploma issued by Canyon State Institute.

Both tracks are described in the institutional catalog; students in both tracks are subject to the same enrollment agreement framework, complaint procedures, and records policies. [Policy wording pending DEAC handbook review.]
